

Best Graduate 3-Minute Thesis Award (formerly the Best Graduate Colloquium Paper Award)

Awarded to the best graduate colloquium paper presented at the conference.

Requirements: All submissions will be considered for this award.

Criteria: A panel of three judges will evaluate papers recommended by reviewers according to the following criteria: theoretical innovation, methodological rigor, and potential for making change in the travel and tourism industry and/or the communities in which tourism takes place.

Award: A plaque will be presented to the award winner at the TTRA Annual International Conference

2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019
Mary-Anne Smith	Jake Jorgenson	Jennifer K. Young	Yu-Hua (Melody) Xu & Lori Pennington-Gray	Michael Lever, Ye (Sandy) Shen & Marion Joppe	YOUR NAME HERE
"Quality Tourism Experiences: A qualitative study of Australian Gold Coast residents' perspective as tourists in a group tour to China"	"A Moment in Time: Autobiographical Memories of Nature-based Tourists"	"Non-Travel: the role of design in the experience of contemporary travel"	"Exploring the Spatial Relationship between Airbnb and Crime"	"Using Eye-Tracking Technology to Segment Tourism Brochure Reading Typologies"	TO BE DETERMINED