

Chapter Achievement Award

The Travel and Tourism Research Association's Chapter Achievement Award is presented to the chapter that best furthers the mission of TTRA through spirit, innovation, effectiveness and creativity.

Requirements: Please include a proposal of 500 words to show the mission of TTRA through spirit, innovation, effectiveness and creativity. You may also include an electronic copy of the advertisement or promotion, member recruitment collateral, newsletter, etc. to be reviewed.

Chapters have the option of submitting an entry from the categories below, or may create a category of their choice. Possible categories are: membership recruitment and retention, member communications, programming and networking, member benefits, or outreach.

Criteria: This award is determined by a review team of practitioners.

Award: The winning chapter will be presented with a $1,000 cash award.
