Call for Presentations

51st Annual Travel and Tourism Research Association International Conference

Victoria, British Columbia, Canada

June 16-18, 2020

Proposal Deadline: 1 December 2019

The Industry Co-Chairs of the 51st TTRA Annual Conference, invite submissions from travel and tourism researchers for presentations, professional development workshops, case studies, debates, discussions and panels relating to the overall conference theme and sub-themes.

The conference theme is 20/20 Vision: Looking Forward, Looking Back and will focus on taking stock of the notable achievements of the past while discussing the issues critical to the future of travel research.

The outcome of the “Setting the Research Agenda” sessions at the Melbourne conference will be our guide for both the Academic and Industry session. Therefore, we are particularly interested in submissions that address the sub-themes outlined below:

- Regenerative Destinations/Economies
  - Climate change: future transition for climate change and tourism
- Business, employment, supply
  - Workforce development policies for the future
  - Representation, diversity and inclusion in tourism
- Measurement
  - Taking a holistic perspective to provide KPIs which meet all stakeholder/community funders, beyond simple numerical counts
- People-centered tourism
  - First Nations and tourism – Control of identity, culture, heritage, land, governance, and future
  - Community Tourism and Resilience
  - Inclusivity and Tourism
- Tourism, Happiness, Health and Wellness
  - Technology and Well-being

Expressions of Interest can be for individual presentations (around 20-30 minutes) or whole sessions (such as a panel or debate – 90 minutes). Please include a brief statement on how the presentation(s) or workshop topic relates to the conference themes and meets a research need. Please also include a biography of the presenters and indicate which presentation format: Organized Panel, Workshop, etc, you are recommending.

Please send your proposals and any questions by 1 December, 2019 at 2020conference@ttra.com
