

Best Graduate 3-Minute Thesis Award (formerly the Best Graduate Colloquium Paper Award)

Awarded to the best graduate colloquium paper presented at the conference.

Requirements: All submissions will be considered for this award.

Criteria: A panel of three judges will evaluate papers recommended by reviewers according to the following criteria: theoretical innovation, methodological rigor, and potential for making change in the travel and tourism industry and/or the communities in which tourism takes place.

Award: A plaque will be presented to the award winner at the TTRA International Conference

2021 YOUR NAME HERE TO BE DETERMINED	2019 Yawei Jiang "Building Dynamic Capabilities in Tourism Organizations for Crisis and Disaster Management: Antecedents and Barriers"	2018 Michael Lever, Ye (Sandy) Shen & Marion Joppe "Using Eye-Tracking Technology to Segment Tourism Brochure Reading Typologies"	2017 Yu-Hua (Melody) Xu & Lori Pennington-Gray "Exploring the Spatial Relationship between Airbnb and Crime"	2016 Jennifer K. Young "Non-Travel: the role of design in the experience of contemporary travel"	2015 Jake Jorgenson "A Moment in Time: Autobiographical Memories of Nature-based Tourists"	2014 Mary-Anne Smith "Quality Tourism Experiences: A qualitative study of Australian Gold Coast residents' perspective as tourists in a group tour to China"
---	---	--	---	---	---	---