

Dr. Kim Williams is the Department Chair of Hospitality & Tourism Management at the University of North Texas (UNT). She is the Robert Dedman Endowed Chair in Club Management and serves as a Faculty Advisor for the Disney College Program. Her dissertation focused on the travel behaviors and preferences of Black and White travelers to New Orleans, and she has conducted research on Black traveler's perceptions of Louisiana as a travel destination for the Louisiana Office of Tourism and research on visitor profiles of attendees to the Essence Music Festival for the New Orleans Multicultural Tourism Network. Dr. Williams has published in numerous journals including the Journal of Teaching in Travel and Tourism, Journal of Human Resources in Hospitality & Tourism, Advances in Hospitality and Leisure, and the International Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Administration.